February 8, 1946 - October 8, 2012

Darlene Bahr

Darlene Cox Bahr was born on February 8, 1946 in San Diego, Texas. She passed away shortly after 3:00 P.M. on October 8, 2012 at her home in Harker Heights, TX at 66 years of age. Darlene was a homemaker who cared deeply for her family, her husband, her children and grandchildren, as well as her many nieces and nephews. She volunteered at various schools and churches throughout the years. She became a Christian when she was in the fourth grade, a faith that she held strongly throughout her life, and that was an influence on those around her. She was a member of Central Christian Church in Killeen, TX. Survivors include her husband, Hubert Arthur Bahr. Three Children: Hubert Bahr III and his wife Robin of Atlanta, GA. Derland Bahr and his wife Candy of Harker Heights, TX., and Alicia Figg and her husband Noah of North Richland Hills, TX. Eight grandchildren: Hadassah, Nathan, Charissa, Deborah, Joseph, Samuel, Isaiah and Rebekah Bahr as well as two great-grandchildren. Six brothers: Wayne, Kenneth, Harold, Billy, A.P., and Curtis Cox. She was preceded in death by one son, Stuart Nelson Bahr, and one brother, Lloyd Dean Cox

?My Riches?

My life is full of riches bold
Not diamonds, silver, gems, or gold
The Kind I mean are nature?s springs
And happiness and human things.

My life?s so full it shouldn?t know
Another tiny drop of love
Or faith, or tears from Above
But it does,
And everyday my riches grow.
