“ i want so much to talk to don again, and hear his voice. life is a precious and momentary gift. i have wonderful memories of having an older brother to help me grow and look after me.we played, we fought, we hunted and fished. don was never ordinary, he had to be the best, its a finley thing. he was also a poet, thinking deep thoughts. how can a lifetime be written in a few words? don has always been in my life, hes older, and when hes resurrected ,he will be again,

“ Although I never met Don, I feel like I got to know him quite well. I am one of the many people on the O'Reilly site that grew to care very much about him through our daily postings. We all loved "talking" with Don. We all sent him prayers and many hugs to let him know how much we cared. He was kind and caring, and will be missed, but never forgotten. I want his family to know that you are all in our thoughts. Angela (pst)

“ My Father was one of the best men i have ever known!!!! He was the best Father anyone could ask for, he was a Loving Husband, Son, Brother, And Friend!!! He was the Strongest Man i have ever known. He love everyone around him and would of done anything for most people. My Father was what some would Call an original BAD ASS!!!! Most people would never get to see him the way we have. My dad has done what only most men could of dreamed of doing. We love him and always will!!!! WE LOVE YOU DONALD RAY FINLEY, SR.! We miss you with all of our hearts and always will!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

“ God Took Him To His Loving Home

God saw him getting tired, a cure was not to be.

He wrapped him in his loving arms and whispered ?Come with me.?

He suffered much in silence, his spirit did not bend.

He faced his pain with courage, until the very end.

He tried so hard to stay with us but his fight was not in vain,

God took him to His loving home and freed him from the pain.

Don, I love you and Owl be yours forever! Love you~10XMore always, Bea
