

Jamar Denzel Lindley

January 6, 1990 - March 25, 2017

Jamar Denzel Lindley, 27 passed away on 25 March 2017 at home in Killeen, Texas after a lengthy battle with cancer. He was born on Jan 6, 1990 in Lawton, Oklahoma, and raised by Henry and Pamela Harris.

Jamar grew up in Killeen, Texas. He graduated from an online school, American High School in Killeen, Texas in 2008. He was determined to graduate high school even though his health had changed dramatically due to the side effects of his chemotherapy treatments. After high school, Jamar moved to Atlanta, Georgia, where he pursued a career as a musical producer/ beatmaker.

He was a member of the Southside Church of Christ. He never stopped loving GOD and encouraged others about the peace and comfort he found in Him. Jamar enjoyed collecting special edition tennis shoes, sketching scripture art and making musical beats. He was a self-taught musician. He established his own production company, "Swisha Made Beats, SMB. He is considered a "musical genius" amongst his peers and the musical circle. He was passionate about his musical beats and has shared many with his friends

Jamar is survived by his sister, Petra Lindley of Killeen, Texas. His grandfather, Willie F. Cummings of Lawton Oklahoma. His Aunts and Uncles, and many cousins and numerous friends.

Jamar was preceded in death by his grandmother, Georgia Cummings, of Lawton, Oklahoma.

A funeral service will be held at Southside Church of Christ at 10 am, 31 March 2017. Burial will follow the funeral at the Veterans Cemetery. .

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to the cancer society of the donor's choice.

Comments

“ Pamela Harris sent a virtual gift in memory of Jamar Denzel Lindley

pamela Harris - June 01, 2017 at 03:50 AM

“ Oooo I just seen this and showed Mom! We are in total shock. May God Comfort you and your family. Ma is Lola!

Rashena - October 15, 2018 at 12:24 AM

“ Pamela Harris lit a candle in memory of Jamar Denzel Lindley

pamela Harris - June 01, 2017 at 03:45 AM