“ Rest In Peace James you are no longer in pain sweetie, I am going to miss those Facebook conversations we had and was so looking forward to going to karaoke with you when I came back ... but we will have to save that for a later time when we all reunite up there with you . You are pain free and can walk freely God Bless you and you will be so miss . Love you James !!

“ Dear Lynne,

I hope you know how much you mean to me, and that your broken heart and loss of your brother has saddened my heart for you. I have no way of truly understanding the depth of your pain, but I will,always be here and available for you anytime you just need a listening ear and a caring heart!

Love you,
Cheryl King

“ Dear Theresa,

Our hearts were and are so saddened at losing Mark. His sweet presence will be deeply missed. You are and remain in my heart and prayers.

Love you,
Cheryl King
