

Lazaro Correa

January 17, 1952 - March 14, 2011

Lazaro (Larry) Correa, Jr. On Monday, March 14, 2011 after a short battle with cancer our Heavenly Father called our beloved Lazaro to his eternal home. He was born in Taylor, TX on January 17, 1952. He was a military veteran and was an avid marathon runner who you would frequently see on the hike and bike trails at Lady Bird Lake. His love for animals surpassed his love for life. Lazaro was preceded in death by his father, Lazaro Correa Sr. He is survived by his life partner, Eddi Valles who was with him at his final breath. Step Mother, Celia Correa of Taylor, Sisters, Anita Chapa (Charles Morris) of Memphis, TN, Sophia Wheaton (Glen) of Lynchburg, VA. Brothers, Jesse Correa (Dolores) of Austin, Frank Correa (David Reynolds) of Round Rock and a host of nieces and nephews. Special thanks to the numerous caregivers at the Hospice wing of the VA Hospital in Temple. Their 24/7 care and support brought comfort to him and his family during his final Journey. A private graveside service officiated by Father David Leibham of St. Albert The Great Catholic Church was held in his honor. ?I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race?. I have kept the faith.? 2 Timothy 4; 6-18

Comments

“ Larry,

I think of you so often and how I miss spending time with you and Eddie. You always showed me so much kindness and love - even if it was by way of teasing me! I miss our barbecues and times hanging out on the porch. You were the best of the best - this world needs more people like you. I miss you and have a lot of love for you forever.

Pam

Pam - January 25, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Eddie-I am so glad I saw you tonight to find out what happened. I cannot stop crying....please try to reach me.....Merry 775-6144

31 years of you together touched my heart in so many ways.

Merry Ward-Wetherell - May 03, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Thank you Larry for being a part of my life. Although our visits to Austin were short, you were always kind and respectful to me and my family.

You had a big impact on my love for the Rosary. You had a large collection of Rosaries and displayed them in your home, how beautiful is that? Your Faith was strong.

To Eddie, just keep your promise. I know you will be OK.

Larry you will never be forgotten, just forever Loved.

Lily J. Valles

Lily J. Valles - April 17, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Larry,

As is the case with every person in this world, when our God given mission is complete here on earth he calls us up to our next assignment in the ever-after. You completed your mission here on March 14, 2011 and while your physical life ended here with us, your thoughts, words and deeds we all shared with you will live forever in our memories.

One such memory, for me, is that of waking up in the morning (whether you visiting us or us visiting you and Eddie) to the scent of fresh brewed coffee and finding you at the breakfast table, a cup of coffee steaming next to you. With your legs crossed, the newspaper outstretched in your hands you'd greet me with "Did you know...?" and proceed to fill me in on world events. That would then follow with your opinion and views of those same events. You would then ask what my thoughts were, to which, your usual response to my replies was - "Really? Well, that's...?" and proceed to further expand your thoughts on those events, all the while sipping on the coffee.

So it is, that I still wake up on Saturday mornings, brew some coffee, pick up the newspaper or turn on the morning news and ask myself - "I wonder what Larry would say about this?"

I am certain, that if I listened really hard I can hear you say - "Really? Well...?"

I end this brief note to you with not goodbye or a farewell, but rather until we meet again my friend.

Robert Valles - April 16, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I keep going down memory lane and thinking about the last 27 years. The one thing I will remember the most about Larry is his "Laugh", he had the best laugh ever! I will carry the sound of his laugh in my heart for the rest of my life. I will miss you, Val

Valerie - April 05, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ To my brother in law Lacho.

R.I.P

Glenwood Wheaton - March 31, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ We will miss you Larry but we know you are in a better place and you are not suffering...don't worry about Eddi we will take good care of him...Lots of love

Mundo and Karen Valles - March 28, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ My dear cousin, I am still trying to come to terms with this. When I saw you last April, I had no idea it would be that last time I would be able to hug you, and laugh with you. I understand what a private man you were. I just wish I had been able to give you a hug and tell you I Love You! My condolences to Eddi and to the rest of my cousins. God Bless you all! Rita

Rita Santiago - March 28, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Larry,

Thank you for who I am, Thank you for all the things I'm not,

Larry remember our life. You showed me Love, Think of all our early days how we grew and changed, how we had so many dreams. Our trust, honesty, respect, and love for each other for 30 beautiful years made us one. I miss you, I miss you, I think of all the storms we went thru, which just made us stronger. I asked my Dad how do I get thru this, he said, "son cry just cry a lot", I thought that was cool. I've been doing that very well, it does help. I know you are okay now, at peace in God's new world.

While we held hands at your bedside and even though you honored me with your last sight and final breath in this world it still hurts, hurts a lot, and always will. I will keep my bedside promise to you, that I would be okay, I know you held on till you believed me. You are a saint of saints, and an example to mankind, I am blessed to be your partner, So till we meet again I know you are with God, your dad, our pets, and my mother, I look forward to my special day when I'm with you all, Specially you! I owe you my life! Never saying good bye, You are in all my moments.

LOVE YA BABE!

Eddiiiiiiiiiiii

Eddi - March 27, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Lazaro was a beautiful human being who brought great joy and smiles to all that knew him. He will be missed.

Antonio's Mexican Restaurant - March 26, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I met Lazaro some 15 years ago. During that time there were only three or four occasions in which I enjoyed his company along with his family in Texas.

I had the pleasure of visiting with him and Eddie several years ago in their home. I was struck with all the religious artifacts and symbols displayed throughout the house. I have always believed that what a person displays in his home reflects his passion, beliefs, and values. In our conversation he exuded love, compassion, respect and a deep religious faith. Our visit was far too short; however, that visit and conversation will remain with me forever.

Good bye my friend.

Charles Morris

Memphis, Tennessee

Charles Morris - March 25, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ My heart breaks. Another family member gone too soon. I find comfort knowing you are at peace and amongst loved ones.

Victoria Chapa-Bailey - March 25, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ My dearest Brother,

Your sun has set. You are in Heaven, sitting beside God. What great joy!

You were a good brother, loving, kind, gentle, respectful, and sharing. When the pain of losing you ceases, if ever, I will look back at such wonderful memories of you dear Brother. Your smile and laughter will forever be etched in my mind. You, forever, will be in my heart.

I love you '20,000' times more.

Your sis, Anita

Your Sister - March 25, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ We little knew that morning that god was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone for part of us went with you. The day god called you home. You left us peaceful memories. Your love is still our guide and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as god calls us one by one the chain will link again.

I will see you when i get there

Love,

Obie

R.I.P

your sister - March 22, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Eddie, Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Nick and Vicki Logan

Vicki Logan - March 20, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Uncle Lazaro is gone but not forgotten. We will miss him more than words can express. He was a private person and we handled his passing exactly as he wished.

I take comfort in knowing he is at peace and now with my Grandpa and Brother. Just what we needed, another Angel watching over us.

Melissa Correa - March 20, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Rest in Peace Uncle Lazaro.

Robert Falcon - March 19, 2011 at 12:00 AM