

Rosa Flecha

August 30, 1926 - July 3, 2020

Rosa Reinoso Flecha was born on August 30, 1926 in Luquillo, Puerto Rico to Miguel Reinoso and Juana Maldonado. She was the youngest of six children. Rosa was raised and completed high school in the town of Humacao.

At the age of 20, Rosa married her life partner Placido Flecha. After marriage, they moved to

New York City where their two sons Ronald and Edwin were born. After a few years, they realized how much they missed their island and family and returned to Puerto Rico and settled in Humacao. Rosa was employed in Humacao as a secretary and worked at Ryder Memorial Hospital, Colegio San Antonio Abad, and The Department of Employment.

Rosa and Placido were always together and enjoyed spending time with their close knit family and friends. They were very devoted to their church and raised their sons in the Catholic faith.

Rosa was a strong woman that created a family environment of affection and “tough love”.

Later in life, after the death of her beloved Placido, Rosa developed dementia which led to Alzheimer’s disease. She moved to Austin, Texas in 2002 where she enjoyed the support of her children. Rosa was known by everyone that came into her presence as friendly and a joy to be around. Until her last days, she always had a smile and a kiss for everyone.

Rosa was predeceased by her husband Placido and her five siblings Lola, Petra, Carlos, Minina, and Blanca. She leaves behind her sons and daughters-in-law Ronald & Gloria Flecha and Edwin & Roxanne Flecha; five grandchildren, Samia, Ronald, Daniel, Dante, and Marina; one great grandson, Gabriel; and many adored nieces and nephews.
