

Sandra Lobash

February 1, 1963 - September 26, 2021

Sandra “Sandee” Lobash, 58, of Leander, TX, died unexpectedly on September 26TH, 2021. Sandee was born on February 1st, 1963, in Minneapolis, MN to parents John Arthur Lobash and Barbara Ann Tuomie. She grew up in the Houston area and graduated from Robert E Lee High School.

In 1991, Sandee gave birth to her son, Timothy Wayne Lobash. Sandee along with her mother Barb, maintained a home together and jointly raised Tim.

In 2003, Barb, Sandee and Larry opened their family business – “Our Daily Bread” — through which they provided school meals for a Lutheran preschool and a private Christian school and served banquets at Saint Martin’s Lutheran Church. Sandee was the baker for the business. She would extol the benefits of buttercream frosting throughout her life.

In 2015, Sandee took a leap of faith and switched jobs from restaurant business to take a Sales Position with Yodel. In 2018, she was the top salesperson of the year – an accomplishment that she worked hard for and of which she was very proud. Her picture was hung on their wall of fame.

Sandee loved to read esp. Science Fiction, and her favorite books were the Lord of the Ring series. She loved all her family passionately.

Sandee is preceded in death by both her parents. She is survived by her son Tim (30) and her brother Larry (Cathy), and sister Beverly Flegel (Brad) and her nephew Brannon (21), and nieces Bryley, Brianna & Brandilynne (14).

A Memorial Service was held to honor Sandee’s and Barb’s life at 2:00pm on Friday, Oct. 1st at Saint Martin’s Lutheran Church in downtown Austin. The service was held in the Chapel.

Saint Martin Lutheran Church

606 W 15th St,

Austin, TX 78701

Comments

“ I worked with Sandee at Godaddy and Hearth. She was a great coworker and always had a positive attitude. I was saddened to hear of her tragic passing. She is and will be missed.

Jason Griffin - October 28, 2021 at 02:58 PM