

Thomas Cecil Hyde III

December 20, 1977 - January 22, 2015

Thomas Cecil Hyde III, better known as TC, son of Thomas and Sharon Hyde, was born on December 20, 1977 in Austin, Texas and like his father before him, was a true Texan and an Austinite in heart and soul.

TC was full of life and vigor and had a charm that made people feel good to be in his company. He was witty and bright and he loved to laugh and enjoy the moment. He was an intelligent Sagittarian who relished learning everything he could about and from the people around him, and his sincere interest in people endeared him to so many. There are no words to fully convey how much TC will be missed, but the lives of those who knew and loved him will never be the same.

TC died on January 22, 2015 in a traffic accident. He is survived by his parents, Tom and Sherri Hyde, his sister Sabrina, his brother David, his fiancée, Collette and her son, Tyler as well as a large family of aunts, uncles, great aunts, great uncles, nieces, nephews and many cousins. He is preceded in death by both his maternal and paternal grandparents, his aunts Jennifer and Mary Kay, and his uncle Steven.

There will be no funeral services for TC, however, a memorial gathering will be held on Friday, February 6, 2015 at the Falcon Pointe Residence Clubhouse at 19015 Falcon Pointe Blvd., Pflugerville, Texas 78660 from 6:00 to 10:00 pm. All of TC's family and friends are invited to attend this celebration of TC's life. While the family deeply appreciates all condolences, they are unable to accept flowers at the memorial gathering location and so they request that you make a donation to your favorite charity in TC's name instead of sending flowers.

“ We shared many first milestones together in our marriage and many of my memories include TC and I'm so grateful to have shared a part of my life with him. He made every moment fun and enjoyable. He was always up to doing and trying new things and loved being with our friends. When time came to look back on his life he wanted to make sure that his was happy and fulfilled with happiness and even though TC was taken much too early he can still know that he had done just that. I saw TC finally after 15 years ago just recently this past December and was so glad to hear how good his life had been since the end of our relationship. Some ups and downs but still just as expected he was happy and grateful. I never doubted anything less from TC. I'm so thankful that I was able to see him one last time and I will add that moment to the many other memories of him that I will hold onto forever. You will be greatly missed and never forgotten and I'm grateful for the years we spent together and will love you always. Thank you TC for everything you brought to my life.

“ I am very sad. I remember most of my high school time was hanging out at t.c.'s house and always laughing. He was the nicest guy I've ever known and am grateful that he was my friend. I saw him about a month ago and he seemed truly happy. He will be forever in my heart and I will always think of the good times.

“ I have not seen TC in over 15 years yet remember the good ol days with him at Mesa Park like it was yesterday. Playing football, basketball, and just hanging out at the gazebo with friends. TC was a good man that always had something funny or witty to say at the right times. I was saddened to hear of TC's passing but like so many others will always cherish the good memories I have of him forever. My families thoughts and prayers are with TC's family at this time as we know it is an extremely difficult time. "Memories are the most priceless paintings in the world." I will forever cherish my memories of TC. RIP brother.

“ As TC's parents, Tom and I would like to thank all of you who have posted your condolences on this site, as well as all of those who have sent condolences through cards and emails. Your remembrances and expressions of love and friendship have warmed our hearts.

TC was one of those rare people who lit up a room and, with no effort at all, had everyone smiling or laughing out loud in no time at all. But he was also a sincere and introspective person. He freely explored religion and his own spirituality; he loved to debate political issues; he could repair just about anything that was broken; he was always willing to lend a hand to any friend or family member who needed help; he enjoyed a cold beer at the end of a hard day at work; and like the rest of the Hyde family, he loved football, could talk about it for hours and never gave up on the Longhorns or the Cowboys.

But most of all, TC was affectionate and loving. He gave hugs and kisses freely and he saw it as his mission in life to cheer up anyone who was feeling down. We love him dearly and will miss him more that words can say.

“ T was my brother. More than that, he was my wingman. He always had my back. When we played Guitar Hero together, he was the bass guitarist. When I had a difficult part, he said he would take up the slack so we could still get a high score. He looked out for me like no one else and always made me laugh. I miss him terribly and wish he could be here with all of us now.

“ T.C. was one of those special people who made a room brighter and happier just by walking in the door. I just loved his smile and his deep voice. His kind and gentle heart became evident if you sat and talked with him awhile. I will always remember his visit here when he was helping his sister move from the North back to Texas. We had a brief but nice visit that night and the next morning. Sending love and prayers to his family. I love you all.

“ TC and I were only given a short time together, but he showed me the meaning of true love and we celebrated our lives together every day. He eagerly embraced my son as his own and we were planning a long, happy future together. It has been a week since he passed and it feels both just like yesterday and an eternity since I have last seen him at the same time. I miss him terribly. Words cannot express my grief.

“ This is one of my favorite pictures of TC and his cousins on his mother's side where TC and James were outnumbered by the girls big time. They all played so well together.

“ I am ashamed to say that I didn't know TC that well but I remember babysitting him when he was two or three and he was full of energy and joy then. And at the last two family reunions he seemed to be that same person. My thoughts, prayers and love are with the family.
