

Abigail Cathleen Faye Cotter

October 4, 1996 - September 17, 2021

Abby was born in Toledo, Ohio.

She spent her childhood in Michigan. All though she always considered herself a buckeye. She spent her young adult life here in Texas. She always dreamed of the day she would go back.

Abby graduated from Canyon High School in 2015. She dabbled in college, for her lifelong dream was to own her own daycare. She loved working with children.

Abby went home to be with her grandparents, her dad Chris, and her best friend Cody.

Abby is leaving behind her great grandma Ms Evelyn, her nana and pawpaw, her father, and her grandmothers. So many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. Her sister in law and her two favorite nieces. Her ten siblings Dalton, Nathan, Jacob, John, Thomas, Travis, Stephanie, Victoria, Emily, Maureen and loving mother, Amy.

She loved each and everyone of them.

Kat loved movies, music, reading, writing, painting, and her beanie babies. Kat might have had an old soul, but she loved the new age.

My kit Kat loved to sing and laugh. When she laughed you were sure to laugh with her. If you were lucky enough you got to hear her famous snort.

Abby was my baby. My first born. My best friend, Abby made me laugh, cry, and get flustered. She taught me how to love. There are absolutely no words for our loss. She was just twenty four years old. She had just started her life.

Mommy will forever be lost without you. You touched so many hearts my love. May you rest in peace my love, my abber dabbers.

“ Abigail, you came to us a shy awkward teenager who quite frankly didn't didn't like many of us. You left this world all too soon as a kind hearted, caring, sweetheart with an infectious laugh, quirky sense of humor and still a little weird. I will miss that weird young woman you were becoming.

Blood makes you related...Love makes you family. Abby, you are loved. You are missed. You are family.

“ Abby you left us too soon💔But the time you were with us we shall cherish. You had a distinctive laugh & snort. I will always remember us "girls" going to pick out your prom dress. How beautiful you looked. You never really liked "dressing-up" but every dress you tried on was amazing but you finally choose the perfect one.I hope you knew & felt loved by this family💜💜💜
 I love you Abby "Nana" Tammy
