

Adam Quinn Lowrey

January 17, 1998 - October 12, 2024

Adam Quinn Johann Lowrey, 26, passed away on October 12, 2024. He was born in Houston, Texas to Curtis Adam Lowrey and Lela McGraw on January 17, 1998.

Adam was a sweet, kind-hearted, and gentle soul wrapped up within his "endearingly annoying" personality. Adam's desire, without fail, was to bring joy and laughter to all those around him.

Likewise in passion, Adam loved and cared deeply for others. Adam's loyalty to those within his tribe was unwavering, and would always touch the lives of anyone in need with his willingness to help others without hesitation.

Adam was strong-willed, never allowing other's opinions to define him, his actions, nor his values/beliefs. Adam was protective, hard-working, and faced each day with bravery, and he enjoyed spending quality time with his friends, family, and beloved dogs, Irish and Mookie. Adam loved music and attending concerts. He worked as an umpire for Select League and Pflugerville Little League; and later discovered a passion for cooking, baking, and making jerky. He and his father had a shared love of collecting Hot Wheels, and he loved hunting, fishing and camping with his grandfather.

Adam was preceded in death by grandparents, Robert McGraw Jr. and Heidi McGraw; mother, Lela McGraw; uncle, Glenn McMann; and best friend, Seth Harper.

Adam is survived by grandparents, James and Victoria Lowrey; parents Curtis and DeAnn Lowrey; sisters Tiffiney McDade, Brittnee Lowrey and Marie

Lindblom; uncles Robert McGraw III and Yancey McGraw; aunts Karen Pfeiffer (Dennis) and Heather Taylor; nephew Cameron McDade and niece Kelsey McDade; and best friend Mackenzie Mace; along with numerous other beloved aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Adam's infectious smile, witty humor, and gentle heart will be greatly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him. His sudden departure has left a void in the lives of those who knew and loved him.

The family is holding a viewing/celebration of life on Sunday, October 20th, from 1:00 - 4:00 PM at:

MINI Event Center
13015 Dessau Road, Ste 203
Austin, TX 78754

A private cremation will be handled through Affordable Burial and Cremation Service at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a memorial donation in Adam's name to the Epilepsy Foundation: <https://efcst.org/>

“ Our hearts are broken to hear the passing of our friend Adam!! He was the sunlight on dark days and his annoying personality made him the kindest and gentle person he was. He was definitely one of a kind hard working, funny and if you were his friend he let you know it!! We will miss that infectious smile and hugs he greeted us with every time we saw him!! Praying God will take great care of him in heaven, and he will rest in peace forever!! May God be with his family and friends during their huge loss!! God speed Adam!! Heaven just gained a very special angel!!David & Tina Newman

“ I met Adam when he came to work at The Texan Cafe for us, over 4yrs ago, he started as a busser and worked his way up and became a pie apprentice to our amazing pie lady Jenn. We loved Adam deeply and his family, grew close to his mother as well and mourned with Adam when she passed. Adam loved being at the cafe and making pies with Jenn and I. He was a jokester and made everyone laugh, even when he made jokes about his seizures on a constant basis. He will be missed by all of his Texan Cafe family, past and present, for sure, and I am grateful for the time I had with him and the laughs we shared! We love and will miss you Adam. Love from The Texan Cafe & Pie Shop family, and Robyn and Jenn.
