

Ana Duran

February 27, 1935 - June 29, 2025

With heavy hearts and profound gratitude for a life well-lived, we announce the passing of Ana Duran on June 29, 2025, at the age of 90.

Ana was born on February 27, 1935, a daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend whose warmth and wisdom shaped generations. Her journey took her from the vibrant streets of New York City, where she lovingly raised her daughters, to Ponce, Puerto Rico, where she became the guiding light for her grandchildren. In 2005, Ana made Killeen her home, where she continued to nurture, support, and inspire her ever-growing family.

Ana's love and legacy are cherished by those she leaves behind: her devoted daughter, Milady I. Santiago-Arredondo, and Milady's spouse, Mariano Arredondo; her treasured grandchildren, Mark A. Arredondo and his wife Ashley Abreu, Hector Figueroa Jr. and his spouse Meron Figueroa, and Jeanette Figueroa and her spouse Carlos J. Vega; her beloved great-grandchildren, Mia J. Arredondo, Michael A. Arredondo, Zakai C. Arredondo, Mark A. Arredondo Jr., Mariana A. Arredondo, Maritza A. Arredondo, Kevin A. Figueroa, DJ Figueroa, Nelliani Figueroa, and Lienel N. Figueroa; and the newest blossom on her family tree, her great-great-granddaughter, Ivy M. Figueroa.

Ana's legacy is one of resilience, compassion, and unwavering devotion to her family. She was a woman of great strength, whose open arms and caring heart provided comfort and guidance to all who entered her home. Whether sharing stories from her youth or offering her wise counsel, Ana was a steady presence, always encouraging her loved ones to persevere and find joy in life's simple moments.

Ana now rejoins her beloved husband, Luis A. Duran, and her dear daughter, Nellie J. Figueroa, in heaven. Though her absence leaves an emptiness in the hearts of many, her laughter, love, and unforgettable spirit will echo through the generations she so tenderly raised.

Her family invites all who knew and loved Ana to celebrate her remarkable life and the immeasurable impact she has had on so many.

May she rest in peace, surrounded by the love she gave so freely and the memories she leaves behind.
