“ I remember the first time I met Andrew when he and Chrissy were dating. I knew he was special and how much he and Chrissy loved each other from the beginning.

God needed Andrew for reasons we do not know at this time, but everytime you see a butterfly or a rainbow or any sign sent from above, know that is Andrew smiling and sending his love. When it rains remember Andrew is sending his love to remind us all he is still with us all in heart and mind in everything we feel and see. Love to Chrissy and her children and all of both families.

“ Working with Andrew for five years at Mac Grill gave me the opportunity to witness the works of a man with a tremendous heart. Andrew was the man of infinite chances. He understood what it means to be human and to make mistakes, and he showed us all what it means when someone really cares for you. My years in Texas are significantly and beautifully colored by his presence and the strength he gave me through the the really tough times. He will be missed.

“ My thoughts & prayers are with you all. My favorite thing about Andrew was his addictive laughter. And that's exactly what I see every time I think of him. Just a huge smile. :)
My love to all of you

“ We have lost a son, a friend, a son-in-law, and the father of our two beautiful grandchildren. Through them, Aaron and Kali, his life goes on. The love he shared with everyone will last forever. We love you, Andrew. Rest in peace, son.

“ Andrew was more than my friend, he was like my father. He stood by me through so many hard times and showed me how to become a better and stronger person. I am sad that I will have to wait to share jokes with him again, but so happy that he is no longer in pain and can now watch over us all! I love you Andrew!

“ I happened to remember a beautiful poem that definately reminded me of the most beautiful older brother? anyone could ever have !! I love you, Andrew & I will remember you with smiles & laughter, but for now I have tears flowing after. ~~~"Remember me with smiles and laughter for that is how I will remember you all. If you can only remember me with tears,then don't remember me at all. "
