

Andrew Payson Lang

May 10, 1953 - March 11, 2014

A Celebration of Life for Andrew P. Lang will be held on March 29th from 1-3 pm at Cedar Park First United Methodist Church, 600 W. Park Street, Cedar Park.

Andy passed peacefully March 11 at his home in Leander, Texas after courageously battling cancer. He was born on May 10, 1953 in Hartford, Connecticut to Robert and Cathalee (Crosby) Lang. He was married to Ann (Freeman) Lang on October 10, 1992.

Andy's early years were spent between Sarasota, Florida and Golden, Colorado. His career choices ranged from commercial fisherman to a DJ. He settled in Texas in 1983 where he had a remodeling business, specializing in his carpentry skills. Most recently, he was employed at Capital Metro as a bus driver and then as a driver for CM Access.

Andy is survived by his wife and true friend, Ann. He will also be missed by his furry friends--Mr. Magoo, Miss Abby Stubs, and Satchmo.

He loved to cook and delighted all his friends and acquaintances with his favorite dishes. He was an avid outdoorsman--hiking, camping, swimming and river rafting. . His love of music took him to many venues-fests, concerts and in depth discussions with friends and musicians. He felt very strongly about 'giving to keep' so he combined his love of animals and volunteering his time with Pet Therapy Pals. Volunteering his time involved him with various local groups. His joy of traveling took him to Canada, New Zealand, Bahamas, Mexico and many destinations in the Continental US.

Andy was truly a people person--relationships with family, friends and clients were very important to him. He touched many lives and many lives have touched him-- a sign of a true friend.

In keeping with Andy's wishes, in lieu of flowers, please make donations in his name to:

“ My condolences to Andrew's family. He seemed like a kind soul who I would always see coming back to the company yard completing his late shifts. He was very a likable character who got along with everyone and could be seen carrying a some sort of library book most of the time. He will be missed. Blessings to his family!
