

Barbara S McLaughlin

December 28, 1939 - August 13, 2016

Barbara S. McLaughlin, age 76, of Georgetown passed away peacefully on Saturday, August 13, 2016 at Seton Medical Center Williamson. She was surrounded by her family. Barbara, the daughter of the late William Hardy Whiteley and Ruby Lee Whiteley was born on December 28, 1939 in Florence, Texas. She attended Georgetown High School and Durham Business College in Austin, Texas. In her early years she worked for the Georgetown Railroad.

On June 2, 1961 she married David L. McLaughlin of Georgetown, Texas. They have two children, David L. McLaughlin, Jr. born in 1962 and Suzanne Marie McLaughlin-Payne born in 1970. Barbara is survived by her husband of 55 years, her children, three grandchildren, her sister Janice Faubion, and her brother Calvin Whiteley.

Barbara was a teacher, a homemaker, and a grandmother and was dearly loved. She loved singing, traveling, her grandchildren and arts and crafts. She will be deeply missed by friends and family, and all that knew her.

She is preceded in death by her parent's and one grandson, Carson Bill Houston born April 16, 1999. Barbara had also requested that there be no funeral service for her. In lieu of a funeral, there will be an immediate burial, and the family will have a small private service at the grave site at a later time.

“ We are so sad to hear of Barbara's passing. Barbara was always such a blessing to our family as a neighbor and friend. We always looked forward to her fresh baked bread and home cooked meals that came at just the right time. You are all in our thoughts and prayers and are very dear to us. Love, Johnny and Theresa
