

Betty Jean McKnight

April 9, 1948 - February 19, 2017

On February 19th, 2017, Betty Jean McKnight passed from this world at the age of 68. Betty was the third daughter of Wiley Audie McKnight and Dorothy Vivian (McCalip) McKnight, and is survived by her son Noah Crist, sisters Sue (McKnight) Watson and Mary (McKnight) Pearson. Betty McKnight was a graduate of the University of North Texas Arlington and would enter what was at the time, a male dominated profession as the first female computer technician in Austin Texas with IBM. Betty married Randy Crist (divorced) and had one son Noah McKnight Crist. She left her profession to raise her son and later re-entered the workforce as a technical writer with defense contractors. Always a lover of travel and the outdoors, Betty made trips to many countries and National Parks anytime the chance arose. Betty was an accomplished wood worker creating many treasured pieces of furniture and other items. Betty was also an avid lover of music and the arts, especially classic literature. Betty leaves a world filled with her family whom will gather on Friday, March 10, 2017 in a graveside memorial in Terral, Oklahoma where she will be interred next to her parents.

Tribute Wall

“ Betty Jean McKnight

October 05, 2023 at 10:58 AM

“ Betty Jean McKnight

October 04, 2023 at 06:25 PM

“ Betty Jean McKnight

September 26, 2023 at 10:57 PM

“ I kept wondering why I couldn't get in touch with you. I will fondly remember our great adventures until we meet again. Tawana LaMont Loeb

Tawana LaMont - September 07, 2022 at 11:41 PM

“ I always thought I would see you again

Thomas A Livesay - April 12, 2020 at 11:47 AM

“ Martha Mae Bryson lit a candle in memory of Betty Jean McKnight

Martha Mae Bryson - March 06, 2017 at 09:42 PM