

Brad Anthony Dicken

May 22, 1966 - May 4, 2026

Brad Anthony Dicken, 59, passed away on May 4th 2026, in Temple, Texas. He was born on May 22, 1966, in Paris, Texas.

Brad was an intelligent and creative man whose curiosity about the world never faded. He had a passion for learning, enjoyed science, and loved thoughtful conversations and a healthy debate. Whether exploring a new idea or tackling a complicated problem, Brad's inquisitive nature was always at work.

Brad proudly served his country as a veteran of the United States Air Force. His love for his country and appreciation for military service remained important to him throughout his life.

Music was one of Brad's greatest passions and a constant throughout his life. He enjoyed playing in bands, writing music, and creating whenever inspiration struck. He also found joy in art, cooking, and cheering on his favorite football team.

Life brought Brad both joys and challenges, but he leaves behind memories, stories, and the people who loved him.

Brad is survived by his daughter, Alyssa Hampton (Dicken) ; his sons,

Kenneth Dicken-Montgomery and Ryleigh Gillette; and 6 grandchildren.
No services are planned at this time.
