

Brandon David Butterfield

November 2, 1980 - August 30, 2019

On Friday, August 30th, Brandon David Butterfield, passed away at the age of 38.

Brandon was born on November 2nd, 1980 in Austin, TX to Dean and Rhonda Butterfield. Brandon grew up in Round Rock, TX where he graduated from Round Rock High School in 1999. After high school, Brandon spent time living between Austin and Denver before settling in Round Rock. Brandon spent his career specializing in sales and customer service positions. Brandon remained single and did not have any children.

Brandon was a movie and television show fanatic. He had expansive knowledge of the cinematic arts and would share with anybody he met. He also had a passion for collecting sports and pop culture memorabilia and owned many different collections. Brandon was happiest when he served as a Brew Master at a local Brewhouse in Round Rock. He also established his own pen business while in middle school, in which he hand-crafted wooden curated pens for close family and friends. Brandon loved animals and obedience training. He left behind his beloved cat Biscuit, and the two of them were inseparable. Brandon was known for his quick wit and his kind and compassionate spirit. His great listening abilities made people feel special and safe around him.

Brandon is survived by his father, Dean, mother, Rhonda, sister, Rebekah, and brother, Alex. He is also survived by many aunts, uncles, cousins, new and lifelong friends.

There will be a private memorial service held on Nov 9, 2019. Anyone interested in attending, please send an email to:
