“ I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one, I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun, Of happy memories that I leave when life is done...

“ Once again I'm truly sorry to Brian's family and pray that GOD gives them the strength to get thru this hard time. Please LORD wrap ur arms around them and give them peace. I meet Brian when I started working at walmart. He was one of the first associate to introduce himself to me and from then we connected. I loved the fact that we could be honest with each other no matter if we hurt each others feelings. Brian was an amazing friend and was always cooking and sharing with me. Oh how I wish I could give him one more hug and tell him how much he meant to me. You will always be in my heart and memories. So happy u are no longer suffering. R.I.P my friend and can't wait till we meet again. Love and miss you Brian.
