

Carolina Deloris Hill Jackson

April 28, 1949 - February 22, 2025

Carolina Hill Jackson was born to Andrew and Genelle Hill on April 28, 1949, in Saint John Colony TX. Carolina was also known as, daughter, sister, wife, mother, auntie and Big Granny, or simply Mrs. Carolina to so many.

Carolina was educated in the Austin Independent School district graduating in 1967 from old LC Anderson High School.

Carolina retired with 26 years of dedicated service from the City of Austin's Water Department as a Water Dispatcher Supervisor.

As a young woman Carolina met Charlie Corzine and together, they had a son named Tracy Hill who preceded her in death in 2008 she later met Freeman Thompson and together they had a daughter Terri (Peanut #1) Thompson. Later in life she married Neija Jackson who preceded her in death. She found pleasure in her time spent with her friends.

As a woman that takes pride in her faith, Carolina found joy when she was able to attend church service at Greater Ulit Avenue Baptist Church, which is Pastored by her cousin Melvin Wright Sr. Carolina also enjoyed the occasional trips to Louisiana with her sister-in-law, Valerie Hill Horton, her daughter Terri and her nieces. No matter if you were family by blood or just pure friendship, the door at 6402 HUNTLEIGH Way was always open to anyone in need.

Carolina had a heart full of love and would be your biggest cheerleader letting you know that she is proud of you, and that she loves you But, don't get it twisted..... she would set you straight if she needed to.

Carolina is preceded in death by her parents Andrew Hill Sr. and Genelle Walker. Her only son Tracy L Hill brothers Frank Hill Bobby Hill Ray Hill and Michael Hill and her grandson Andrew Hill Sr. and great grandson Dez'Rean Hill. She leaves to cherish her memory, her only daughter Terri Genell Thompson and grandson Desmond Hill whom she raised and love as her very own. Carolina also leaves behind siblings Larry Anderson, Andrew Hill Jr., Linda Hughes Deborah Gray, Faye Carter and David Hill and Lena Bowser who held the special title of God-Sister. Carolina was blessed to be called Big Granny by 5 grandkids and 22 great grandkids as well as a host of nieces, nephews, and neighborhood friends.
