

Cher Louise Bear

May 22, 1961 - April 17, 2026

Cher was born in 1961 to Billie Lane Thompson and Alice Faye Cochrum. She spent her life as a caring and hardworking woman who devoted herself to taking care of her family and those around her. She brought a lively sense of magic to the holidays and went above and beyond to make sure the people she loved felt supported, comfortable, and celebrated.

Cher had a lifelong love of décor and fashion, always wanting to look her best and searching for the perfect, meaningful gift. When she gave something, it was never just an object. Each gift carried a memory and a piece of her heart, because moments shared with others mattered deeply to her.

In her later years, Cher dedicated herself to caring for others as a nurse and caregiver. She worked tirelessly to ensure the needs of her patients and family were met with compassion and kindness.

She is survived by her children, Travis, Kirsty, and Nina. Her light, affection, and care will be dearly missed by all whose lives she touched.

Tribute Wall

“ Tricia Brackin lit a candle in memory of Cher Bear

Tricia Brackin - May 21 at 02:48 PM

“ We miss your sparkle! Holidays were an event with Cher. Every detail mattered, the food and the laughter all from the heart.

Tricia Brackin - May 21 at 02:46 PM

“ Stacey Johnson lit a candle in memory of Cher Bear

Stacey Johnson - May 05 at 11:01 PM