“ Hi Chris, I just discovered that you had passed in February. I have been attempting to contact you and check on you for months, now I know why you haven't answered. I sincerely hope your pain is gone and you are in a better place. Your smile lit up the room wherever you went. Your laugh could warm anyone's heart. I hope what I think happened to end your life didn't happen. I know you were in pain and starting over, I really wanted to be there for you. I am so shocked right now, and it hurts. Biggest of hugs, and I hope you are okay.
