

Clifford Lynn Norton Sr.

December 22, 1955 - November 23, 2016

Clifford Lynn Norton, Sr. went to be with our Lord and Savior on November 23, 2016. He was a Vietnam Veteran, a warrior, a father, a grandfather, a son, a brother, an uncle, a cousin, and a friend to just about everyone who met him. He was passionate about his life, and never wasted a chance to go fishing, or play his guitar for whomever would listen. His absence from this world is immeasurable. Born to Teddy and Doris Brooks, and later adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Norton as a young boy, Cliff came to have a very large extended family. He is survived by five children, Jeremiah and his mother Pam and dad Robert, Elizabeth and her children, Clifford Jr. and his daughters, Doris and her children, and Anna (the baby) and her husband, Demetrius, and their children and the mother of Clifford Jr., Doris, Elizabeth and Anna, is Flora. He is also survived by his brothers, Eddie Brooks, and Little Ted and sister, Wanda, and brother in love, Billy. Cliff was preceeded in death by Mr. and Mrs. Norton, Doris Brooks, Ted Brooks, and his wife Millie. He was also preceeded in death by his brothers Benny, and Jimmy, and one grandson. In lieu of flowers, we are asking that you thank a veteran for their service, and never miss a chance to be kind to someone less fortunate than yourself. Services are pending

I am so sorry for the pain you kids are having. I love Clifford with all my heart and he will be so missed by me too. I love each of you. You are all a part of Clifford. My brother lived his life and I have to say he lived. He loved the outdoors and fishing and camping and you kids. He will be missed.

I wasn't privileged to meet Clifford as a grown up. I only remember him as a small child before he was adopted by the Norton family. I feel that Clifford was a great person by the posts I read of his children and loved ones and wish I would have had the privilege of knowing him better. I honor his memory as a veteran, a father and friend. May God bless you all and give you peace. May you think on the good times you shared with him and the love you had for each other.
