“ My condolences to the family. Cody was a friend of my son and I'll never forget, when he would visit, I had a box in my living room forever with my treadmill in it, needing to be assembled. One day Cody said you know I can put your treadmill together for you. He came over one day and put it together like it was nothing and he did not want any money whatsoever. He did this out of genuine thoughtfulness. I remember how excited he was about having one of his kids and he said imma bring my baby by. He did just that. He brought his baby by along with the mother of his child at that time. I felt Blessed that he wanted to share the love and excitement he had of his child with me. May he R.I.L. 🙏🕊️
