Cynthia Ann Zamarripa October 07 1965 -May 29th 2013

Cindy passed quietly to her new life with our Lord in Heaven, surrounded by family and friends.

She was a rowdy tomboy that blossomed into a beautiful lady. Cindy loved children, music, and nature.

She is survived by her son and daughter in law Dakota and Kim Truelove of Temple, stepdaughter Kim Castillo of Austin, life partner Frank Guerra of Belton, grandmother Soledad Zamarripa of Modesto California, her mother and her step-father, Lazaro and Thelma Hernandez of Belton, her father Juan Eliseo Zamarripa, 3 siblings John Zamarripa and Yvonne Fleshman of Belton, and Catherine Hale of Waco, 2 granddaughters and numerous other family and friends. She was preceded in death by her beloved grandparents, Julian and Elena Cassiano of Belton, and Juan Zamarripa of Modesto California.

Cindy was fragile in health but strong in love for family and friends. We will miss her sweet smile, but also rejoice that the Lord has made her whole and strong once more! No more pain, sweet sister; no more wheel chairs; no more fear. We love you always. Be at rest; be at peace.

“ Cindy,

You were always very special to us. You were born 3 weeks before our first born son Jeff. We have a photo of you and Jeff side by side in strollers. We were honor when asked to be your God Mother & God Father. So very sorry that we let miles keep us apart. Just know that we love you. Uncle Steve & Aunt Lupe

“ When Cindy was a little girl, before Texas, she was this sweet little curly headed angel that loved to perform her dances, and sing, for me and her Uncle Jerry. I can still see her now. We missed much of her growing up years, but loved her from afar... I will miss her beautiful smile and that unique little laugh that could tickle any heart... Cindy will live on in all our hearts...Love,Peace and Serenity...Always and Forever

“ I remember all of us use to climb the big oak tree in my front yard. Cindy and I also used to jump off sawhorses or anything nearby, jump off and flap our arms to see if we could fly. We would all go to the Little Store and buy candy. The things we did as kids. Wonderful memories.
