

David Pollard

October 14, 1938 - May 12, 2011

David Leslie Pollard

October 14, 1938 ? May 12, 2011

David L. Pollard of Austin passed away on Thursday morning May 12, 2011.

He was born October 14, 1938 in Dallas to Les and Ann Pollard. Soon after his birth, the family moved to Austin, where he spent the majority of his life. As a child and teenager, he was passionate for athletics. Football was his first love in which he excelled. It wasn't just the game that he loved, but the people he was honored to share the time with that made it truly special. He starred at Austin High School as a Fullback, Halfback, and Punter and received All-District and All-State Honors as a senior in 1956. His teammates that he shared a special bond until passing include Mack Breedlove and Alton Greeven. His Quarterback and good friend John Babcock preceded him in death.

Following graduation from Stephen F. Austin High School, David made a decision to enter the Army National Guard and served at Ft. Bliss in El Paso, Texas. He then enrolled at the University of Texas studying Business and joining Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity. Upon graduation from Texas he married his college sweetheart, Ruth Elizabeth Day of Houston. He accepted a position in banking at Republic National Bank in Dallas before coming home to Austin to help his dad run the family finance business. Years later, he opened Champions Men's Clothing. Following the closing of Champions he worked in several business ventures prior to retirement.

His family was his passion and he dearly loved his daughter Laura Elizabeth Pollard, his son David Bradley Pollard, his sisters Gretchen Pollard Richardson of Crane, Texas, and Judy Pollard Weatherford Freeman of Dallas, and his many cousins, nephews, and nieces in Lubbock, Dallas, and throughout Florida. No one seemed to make him happier than his three beautiful grandchildren Blake Miller Pollard (11yrs), and twins (5yrs) Hudson Bradley Pollard, and Emersen Kaye Pollard. He lived for those moments with them and they dearly loved their Grandad.

David enjoyed his last years of life working at Hardin House, a private freshman women's dormitory at the University of Texas. He also loved gathering with his coffee group called the AHS Klatsch Group, which is made up of graduates of Austin High Class of '56 that meet every Thursday. In addition, he enjoyed anytime he could spend with family and friends. He loved drinking coffee and eating dinner with his daughter Laura and looked forward to his visits down to Cypress, TX to see his son Brad, daughter-in-law Dallas and three grandchildren to enjoy some home cooking. He was thrilled any chance he had to watch his grandson's sports activities and get big hugs from his granddaughter, Emersen.

For those that knew David, you would know that he loved the Longhorns, lived for watching golf and college football, loved to chat, and never met a stranger.

There will be a celebration of his life for friends and family on Saturday May 21, 2011 from 4-6 pm at Central Market at 4001 N. Lamar in Austin.

The family asks that instead of flowers that donations be made to the Stephen

F. Austin High School Continuing Education Foundation <http://www.austinhighfoundation.org/donate.html> or to Hardin House, David Pollard Memorial at 2206 Rio Grande, Austin TX 78705-5130, kparke@hardinhouse.com.

“ I was saddened to learn of David's death. We attended junior and high schools together. We went to an eighth grade dance together; I mentioned it to David when I attended our 50th reunion and he didn't remember the dance although he remembered me. One out of two isn't bad!

I know David will be missed by his family and friends and my heartfelt sympathy goes to all those people with whom David shared his life.

“ Brad, I am so glad you answered the phone today and gave me the details about Davids Passing. We had been trying to call him these past couple of weeks. We knew David and Ruth in the 60's. These past few years we would always call David when we were in town and we would get together for a visit. We will certainly miss those visits!

Our Best Regards to the family.

“ David- The things I will miss about you... the smell of your coffee when you visited, watching college football and you singing me- "poor aggies" (you couldn't sing it this last season!!!), you telling the grandkids- "let's have a chat"!, your abundance of questions, you having holiday meals with us, the hams, the tradition of bringing down your favorite snacks for the kids, the perfect cards you sent in the mail for birthdays and the cards you sent the grandkids for holidays, your kindness to Ruth these last few years, your adoration for your son and grandkids. "Hook 'em Horns David"! We will miss you.

“ Hey,Bro,

I'm going to miss you sooo much! Although we were not close growing up, we became best friends about 10 years ago! I am very happy for that time with you, and I will miss our regular talks on the phone.

From this guestbook, you certainly have had a lot of good friends who cared about you very much.

I promise that I forgive you for running over my foot with the lawnmower when I was six. The worst part about it was my missing the Maypole Dance at Pease Elementary School.

I will always remain close to Brad and Laurabeth forever!

Love,

“ the memories of good people last a lifetime. From the time I left Austin in 1955 until the 50th reunion, I had only seen one AHS classmate. At #50 and at the Klatsch, David was one whom I distincely remember as being one of the good guys of our youth. we all miss the departed, but we do not have to miss their imprint on our lives. Peace.

“ WOW!!!! The messages left prior to this one speak to David "Bull" Pollard that I know.. He came into this world a few years before me, but we shared some common threads, Austin High, football and FIJI at The University. Met "Bull" in the 70s and no matter the day, the time, the good or the struggle, he was kind, gracious and humble with a great big smile. Have not seen him in 8+ years and am sincerely sad of his passing. The Lord called His' Saint home. All the very best to the Pollard family as there is no words, nor preparation to ease the grief or pain of losing a Dad, Grandad, mentor, teacher or friend. But when our time comes, wouldn't it be nice to be remember as is "The Bull"..... Godspeed, Jim

“ the way i think of my grandad honest and a very well hearted man the one thing that i loved when my Grandad would visit was he would say lets have a chat i always loved when Texas was playing he'd come down and watch it with us. i will never forget when i was 6 he gave me my first foortball uniform and he is the one that made me love the sport today i am really glad i got to spend my eleven years with him because he was the man that i would always talk about and you can really get a long talk with him

you will always be here in my heart

“ How much fun we all had when my daughter married your son. During the holidays, when everyone would get together, the parents would either go to Cypress or Austin. These visits would include the best home cooking or most fabulous restaurants.

The bowl games brought great rivalry since we had two Longhorns, one Aggie, a Red Raider, and of course a USC TROJAN!

You were a proud dad that became a dotting grandfather. You were SO FUNNY when you would have your little "chats" with the grandkids.

In 12 years we had lots of good times and made lots of good memories and saw our family grow. It doesn't get much better than that!

“ Even though I hadn't seen David since we were in High School, I recognized him when I went to Klatschers for the first time last year. I don't go to Austin that often, but when I did, I'd go to Klatschers and everytime I saw David I got a big hug. I didn't see him the last few times I was there and I missed not seeing him. Now that he's gone, I miss him even more. It made me sad when I learned of his passing. I will always remember him. He was such a warm and friendly guy. My prayers & sympathy are with his family.

“ I send my prayers and heartfelt condolences to David's family, especially Gretchen. My friendship with David goes back to our time in Pease Elementary. My family and his were very close during those years. Once we graduated from Austin High, our paths took different directions, so we didn't connect again until our high school reunions and our Klatsch, at which we renewed that friendship and shared our separate journeys through life. I regret that I cannot be at the celebration of his life next Saturday because of another commitment. However, I am grateful that we were able to have some special time together the last several months, and I will hold those in my heart always.

“ Years ago, at an AHS reunion, David pulled me aside and spoke to me, saying "I want you to know how much I always admired you and the creative things you did. I wished I could do what you did." I was startled. Although David and I had been friends a long time -- he was an athlete, and I was an artist. Our lives didn't have much common ground, yet he was bold and gracious enough to express a heartfelt compliment that he thought was overdue. I told him that I had always admired him too -- in fact, I was rather envious of his athletic abilities and bravado -- the things he did that I wished I could do. As mature men, he and I connected in a way we hadn't as kids. That encounter with David will forever remain my prime memory of a special man with a good soul.
