Dennis McQueen Obituary

Dennis Alan McQueen passed away February 9, 2020 at Scott & White Hospital in Temple. He was born on May 16, 1956 to James H. McQueen and Elrita (Hoelscher) McQueen of Temple, Texas.

Dennis attended high school at Killeen High School where he graduated in 1974. For 10 years he worked at Pizza Palace also in Killeen Texas. From there he went on to become a technician and eventually service manager at the small engine repair shop, McQueen's Repair Shop, which his parents owned.

Dennis was the primary caregiver for both of his parents as they grew older until his mother's passing in 2013. Following Elrita's passing, Dennis moved in to live with his brother Gary McQueen, just a few blocks from the family home. Dennis's final years were spent living at Indian Oaks Living Center in Harker Heights Texas.

Dennis is preceded in death by his parents, James and Elrita. Surviving Dennis, are, his brother Gary McQueen and his wife Tammy, and three sisters, Sharon Dubois and husband George, Nancy Patrino and husband Russell, and Michelle Robinson and husband Nate, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

The family would like to extend our thanks and gratitude for the care and services provided by both Indian Oaks Living Center and Scott & White Hospital during Dennis's final days. A private cremation will take place at a later date, with arrangements made by Affordable Burial and Cremation.
