“ Dennis, you were the most amazing brother any girl could ever have. Thank you for being YOU!! You watched over us and guided us. You had a heart bigger than anything ever!!! I know i could always turn to you for guidance or help. I picture You riding Buttercup out in the pastures and sitting on the old truck bench seat you found and put down in the cottonwood area below the barn and you and Roy are getting caught up together!!! Will love and cherish you always!!!!
