

Derrick Tucker

October 13, 1971 - May 25, 2026

Derrick Tucker was an individualist he was never afraid to be different . From his passion for motorcycles to collecting swords and dragons. The past several years he enjoyed his role as a father and grandfather. He loved to laugh and to do things to lift everyone' s spirit. The bond that was created the past few years will always be remembered and never forgotten. Derrick is survived by his daughter , granddaughter,brother and sister. Derrick we hope you are riding across the sky,and your pain is no more. Forever cherished and loved always, you will be missed.
