“ Without you I wouldnt be alive. Without you I would be lost. Without you I wouldnt know what true unconditional love is. Life is hard but knowing no matter how bad I mess up, no matter how many things I cant get right, no matter how many mistakes I make, knowing that you still love me, that someone still loves me, despite all my past mistakes is what makes me want to be a better person than i was yesterday everyday. You sparked my light, and without you I would see nothing but darkness. I love you so much words cant explain, and ill never forget about you grandma Elida. The light that shined brightest when no one else could.

“ I thank god for you. I wasn't always the best person but you showed me so much love and acceptance regardless of my flaws. Sometimes when I feel alone I can feel you in my heart saying I'm right here. You will always be a great example of what a Grandmothers love can do. You gave us special days and coordinated holidays for our family to enjoy. You made so many memories and we thank you. I love you Grandma Elida.

“ She was a wonderful mother. It is obvious by the daughter and son she raised. They will forever reflect the beautiful heart she shared throughout there lives.
