

Forrest Child Jr.

August 23, 1945 - June 30, 2024

Forrest Child Jr. of Georgetown, Texas, passed away on June 30, 2024 at the age of 78.

Forrest is survived by his daughter Melanie Camarena (husband Marco), son Steven Child, grandchildren Aidan Camarena, Nadia Camarena and Abigail Child, and sister-in-law Phyllis Washburn. He is preceded in death by his wife Joan Child, his parents Forrest Child Sr. and Doris Child, and his sister Sharon Tabard.

Forrest retired from Round Rock Independent School District as a tax assessor. Forrest enjoyed hunting, fishing and bowling with his bowling league in his free time. He spent the past ten years being a doting husband taking care of his wife, Joan after her illness. They would spend their time watching the University of Texas, especially football, basketball and baseball. After her passing, he was invested in his grandchildren's activities and future plans.

Forrest will be dearly missed by his family and all that knew him. A private funeral for the family will take place on July 9, 2024.
