“ You were right. Frank was a mans man. He taught me a lot at Alief Manufacturing where he was an auto technician. Was very kind, wise, and well repected. My Condolenses

“ Even though Frank was my step-father, he raised me as his own son and he tried to instill his own values in me as i was growing up and I am a better person for it today. I will miss his humor and passion for life. I will miss his knowledge, everything i know today about cars, he taught me. I will miss his spirited talk about politics and life.

But most of all I will just miss him.

“ Frank always made me laugh. I will miss that. Sometimes I did not understand what he was saying but he ended it with a laugh. I think he knew I did not understand him. We were lucky to have known him and know that he is looking down on you now without any pain.

“ Frank was the epitome of "old school" manners, personal honor and integrity.... and so much fun to be around! Any & all who knew him will remember him as an honest man with a gracious & giving heart; a friend who said what he meant, and meant what he said. You will always have your dignity, Frank; Rest In Peace!

“ My father was the man that I wanted to become in alot of ways. Resourceful, Confident, and always leading from the front. When I heard his voice it would send a proud chill down my spine. I was proud to have him as a father and more proud to know that he always believed in me. I love you Apu and please watch over me.

“ Mr. Frank was a good man with a kind spirit. I learned a lot from him in the short time that I knew him. He touched my heart and made a positive difference in my life. He was a man I greatly respected and he became my good friend.

The fond memories I have of Mr. Frank will always be in my heart.

Ms. Nellie, I want to thank you for the kindness and friendship you have shown to us.

God bless you and your family and give you peace that surpasses all understanding in Christ Jesus name.

“ Frank was the only man other than my brother and father that I ever kissed; he was that close of a friend. I will miss him for the rest of my life.

“ Frank had an infectious smile and a gentle way. I knew he was a good man from the moment I met him and I am so proud to say I knew him. My husband is also a good man..largely because of Frank. My heart is with you Nellie and we love you so.
