

Frank Edward Rasberry

March 27, 1933 - February 16, 2025

Frank Edward Rasberry, 91, passed away on February 16, 2025, in Austin, Texas. He was born on March 27, 1933, in Cushing, Texas to Ross Clifton Rasberry and Helen Ann Penney Rasberry who created a stable, loving, and happy home for Frank and his brothers.

Frank proudly served his country in the United States Army as a sergeant during the Korean War from 1953 to 1957. His time in the military instilled in him a sense of respect and resilience that carried through every aspect of his life.

Following his service, Frank built a successful career in the oil and gas industry as an accountant and administrator. His steady nature and sharp mind made him a valued professional in his field. He approached his work with diligence and integrity, earning the respect of colleagues and peers alike. Until the end of his life, Frank never lost his mental acuity, especially with finances and technology.

Beyond his professional life, Frank enjoyed spending time with family, traveling, playing games, fishing, hunting, and golf. Later in life, when he could no longer participate, he enjoyed cheering on his favorite college sports teams. He had a special relationship with his beloved twin brothers, Max and Brax, with whom he stayed close throughout their lives.

Frank built his life on the foundations of faith and values he learned growing up in the Baptist church in Cushing. These principles guided him throughout his life, shaping his character as an honest, friendly, and optimistic man with a wonderful sense of humor.

He is survived by his brother, Max Rasberry; children Paula Stewart, Fran Rader, Frank Edward Rasberry Jr. and wife Roxy, Lisa Ryan, Steve Cauffman and wife Jill, and Sheryl LeBlanc and husband Jay; as well as 12 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

He was predeceased by his parents; his wife of 48 years, Valerie Rasberry; his brother, Brax Rasberry; son, Michael Cauffman, and sons-in-law, Kenny Stewart, Paul Rader, and Casey Ryan.

Frank's presence will be deeply missed by all who knew him. His memory will live on through the stories shared by family and friends, bringing comfort to those who loved him until we are reunited with him in the sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life. A graveside service will be held on Saturday, May 3rd, at 3 pm at the Glenfawn Cemetery in Cushing, Texas.
