

Garry Arlyn Brundage

March 4, 1959 - January 6, 2018

Garry Arlyn Brundage

On January 6th, 2018 Garry Brundage passed away at age 58 in Del Valle, Texas.

Born in Vicenza, Italy on March 4th, 1959 Garry grew up in a military family and lived in various places. As a young boy, Garry played baseball as a pitcher, and shortstop. He once pitched a, "No Hitter Game" and towards the end told his Dad he wanted to quit because, "this is boring."

Garry was skilled in handyman occupations such as; Carpentry, Tile work, Decking, Skirting, Roofing, and a variety of other jobs.

Years before Garry spent time Harpooning and fishing swordfish on a boat out in California. This experience led to his distaste in seafood later on in his life.

Foremost, Garry was very proud of his children Sarah Brundage-Bird, and Garrett Peschke-Brundage. His talents included playing guitar, writing songs, and playing washers with his friends.

Garry's later life was spent dealing with cancer, correcting his blindness, and fighting a spinal disease before his final sleep.

Preceded in death by: parents Garry Edward and Evelyn Brundage, and brother Ricky Brundage.

Garry is survived by: his brother Edward and Annemarie Brundage of West Haven, Utah; his sisters Cheryl and Mike Neely of Beulah, North Dakota; Marie and Steve Dalie of Simi Valley, California; Laura Stenstrom of Orlando, Florida; and Crystal and Eric French of Georgetown, Texas; his daughter Sarah Brundage-Bird of Austin, Texas; and his son Garrett Peschke-Brundage of Kyle, Texas.

Garry will always be remembered by the many lives he touched. We love you.
