

George Peter Zentichko

June 25, 1956 - October 11, 2015

Son of the late, George & Amelia Zentichko, Ambridge, Pa., brother to myself and brother-in-law and great friend to Gary Bennett of Austin, Texas. Uncle to Scott Bennett & Cody Morales, treating them like gold with crazy fun they just loved being around him. He showed my whole family how a true Texan lives. Arrowhead hunting, Bass fishing tournaments, Lake Travis, and having Willie in the (or as he would say) in his backyard. Owner of By George Carpets, he had moved from our small hometown in Pittsburgh in the late 70's and found a job laying carpet the following day. He took pride in his work, being a perfectionist, he was known for having the lowest estimates for installations to have full time work. He would offer money back to customers when time was shorter than expected. He had the strong desire to succeed. He owned his first Texas home on Hudson Bend then later purchased home to rent out for retirement and showed any one who knew him and his past that dreams do come true.

Georgie, my baby brother, I know you were not ready. I never thought I could feel like I do. My heart is on fire with the pain of losing you, but it is what I would choose as long as you leave us with no suffering.

Bye,
Donna

“ I worked and roomed with George in Austin in 1982. My name is Doug Kohut. George was a very skilled installer. He took me under his wing and showed me the ropes. Have some great memories of living and working in Austin thanks to George. R.I.P.
