

Geraldine Luddington

April 7, 1945 - November 17, 2024

Geraldine Luddington, 79, passed away peacefully in Austin TX on November 17, 2024. She was also known by family and friends as Gerry. She was born in Victoria Texas on April 7, 1945, Gerry was the beloved daughter of Jacob and Mary Hosey.

She moved from Texas to Anchorage AK in 1965 with her husband Calvin Luddington, when he was reassigned by the US Air Force to Elemendorf Air Base. In Alaska she embarked on a long and fulfilling career as a dietician, dedicating 36 years of service before retiring from the Alaska Regional Hospital.

Gerry was an excellent cook and shared her love of barbecue with her husband Calvin, a hobby that brought joy to many family and community gatherings. She was a cherished figure in her family, celebrated for being a dotting grandmother to three grandchildren. Her warmth and care extended not only to her immediate family but also to all that knew her.

Gerry leaves behind a legacy of love and devotion. She is survived by her son, Charles Luddington, Austin TX; grandchildren, Crystal Luddington, Anchorage AK, Cameron and Kelsie Luddington of Austin TX; and great-grandchildren Aidan Luddington-Stewart and Sybilia Luddington. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Calvin Luther Luddington; son, Calvin Luther Luddington III; and her parents Jacob and Mary Hosey.

Gerry will be fondly remembered as a devoted mother and grandmother. A private memorial service for friends and immediate family will honor Gerry's life and legacy. Her spirit and love will forever resonate with those who were fortunate to know her.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations in memory of Geraldine Luddington be made to the American Kidney Fund (give.kidneyfund.org).
