It would be wrong to say that Gloria lost her battle because she never stopped fighting. No matter how sick she was, she was always determined. When anyone else would have broken, Gloria stayed strong. Through her, we know what resilience and perseverance truly look like. There was no quit in Gloria. Just because she is no longer here, it doesn't mean she lost her fight. If love could have saved her, she would have lived forever. She will be truly missed.

“ My mom, Gloria Rivera was a very strong independent women who raised 7 children to be independent people like herself. Mom had a close relationship with us all and we would call and text daily. Mom also had a special friend, her dog chiquita who she loved with all her heart, our baby sister Evette is now caring for chiquita. We are missing you so much mom, I catch myself trying to call you to tell you something, we would laugh so much on our phone conversations sometimes. We (siblings) have been comforting one another and have been spending brunch on some days to just be with each other. We love you mom and we will be together one day.
