

Gregory E. Stader

February 13, 1956 - March 6, 2020

Gregory E. Stader, (Goyo), 64 peacefully passed away Friday March 6, 2020

At St. David's Main Hospital in Austin Tx. Greg was born to Richard and Norma Stader on February 13, 1956 in Washington D.C. He grew up in Houston, Tx and spent summers with his father in Guatemala City, Guatemala. Where he met the love of his life, Ingrid. They ran a skateboard park and a bar in Guatemala City. Then later on married Ingrid on August 1979. In 1986 Greg and Ingrid moved their family to Austin, Tx where they started their own company Amazon Gardens and Palms Landscaping Services. Greg was an amazing business man, landscaper and grandfather. He is survived by his wife, Ingrid Stader, His Daughter Geogean Stader, (Jason Halber), Daughter Chelsie

Herrera (John Herrera).

His Son Chadd Stader (Luz V Stader)

His Mother Norma Stader Beier, His Brother Stacy Stader (Sam Stader), grandchildren: Maddie, Troy, Trigg, and Trinity Stacy.

Predeceased by his son Richard Stacy Stader and his father Richard Eugene Stader.

Services are cancelled due to corona virus mandate.

Tribute Wall

“ Gregory E. Stader

October 05, 2023 at 10:58 AM

“ Gregory E. Stader

October 04, 2023 at 06:25 PM

“ Gregory E. Stader

September 26, 2023 at 10:57 PM

“ I knew Greg when he lived next door to me in Guatemala back in First Grade. My father was in the Air Force and I think his dad, Gene was too.

He was a fun kid, and I wish I had looked him up sooner!

I'm sorry that I missed you, Greggy. We could have had a good laugh!

Joe Koziar Bellevue, Nebraska

Joseph Koziar - December 29, 2020 at 11:07 PM