Haley also had a brother she never got to meet Dustin Allen Pearson. Haley also had loving grandparents Robert Paul Loehr Sr. and Wanda Loehr .Haley had a son Wyatt Paul Slye. Haley loved and protected her son with her life. He truly was Haley's world.

Haley was a tomboy growing up she loved the out doors, camping and fishing and hunting was just a few of her favorite things to do. She always had a smile that would light the world up. Haley had the cutest little laugh and she loved to sing her voice was so beautiful and soft. She also loved listening to music. She could make friends so easy she had a great personality. She was outgoing, trusting, enjoyed making friends and meeting new people. She loved to make others happy, and help others every chance she got. Don't get me wrong she wasn't perfect but no one is. Haley had her moms temper and had a short fuse when it came to any one she loved being hurt. But Haley lived her life to the fullest. She was loved by so many people her friends and her family loved spending time with her. Haley was close to her grandpa (Lil' Tex.) they went fishing together a lot. They would sit and draw horses together or just sit in talk. Haley was closes to her mom Valerie Wilson. Haley was her moms world. Not a day went by that they dint talk or see each other or at least check on one another.

But unfortunately Haley past away on 10/10/2021 in Austin Texas. At the age of 21. Haley Turner will be misses by all her friends and family. Haley left behind a son Wyatt Paul Slye and a mom Valerie Wilson that she loved and was very protective of. She also left behind a uncle she looked up to and loved and two aunts that she loved. Haley also left behind her brother she never got to meet Dustin Allen Pearson and a grandpa Robert P. Loehr Sr. she love and respected and looked up to and a grandma Wanda Loehr that she loved. Haley's wings were ready for her but our hearts were not ready to say good bye. Haley will never be forgotten by any one that knew her so Haley Renee Turner spread those beautiful wings and fly high up in the clouds because your free now and you can rest in peace. You will always be Love. Your gone but never forgotten.
