

Hyong Sun Delgado

May 17, 1945 - January 28, 2026

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of our beloved mother, Hyong Sun Delgado who left this world peacefully and surrounded by love. She was a woman of quiet strength, boundless generosity, and unwavering dedication to her family. Her kindness touched everyone she met, and her presence brought warmth, comfort, and a sense of belonging to all who knew her.

She spent her life caring for others—through her actions, her words, and the everyday moments that revealed her gentle heart. Whether offering guidance, sharing laughter, or simply listening, she gave of herself freely and without hesitation.

She leaves behind her brother, Hyeongkil Lee daughter Myriam Delgado, son Oliver Delgado, daughter in-law, Perri Delgado, granddaughters Stefanie Payne and Samantha Frederick, who adored her and whose lives are forever shaped by her wisdom, compassion, and enduring love. Though our hearts are heavy, we take comfort in knowing that her spirit will continue to guide us, and the lessons she taught will remain with us always.

“ Thank you so much for being apart of my life and my family's life. You are truly an amazing woman who taught me to never give up and to keep fighting to the very end. You helped our Buddhist Organization grow within Killeen by sharing encouragement and chanting alongside members. Thank you for being my co leader and a wonderful person to call my friend.

“ I will always remember Sue for her strength, dedication and the full support she gave everyone. I looked up to her like a big Sister, I appreciated her straight forward, honesty. I will miss our conversations, her advice and wisdom. Rest in power my Myoho Sister.
