

Ingrid Arn

June 18, 1949 - January 5, 2023

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our mother Ingrid F. Arn.

After a long and courageous battle, she was called to join our Heavenly Father on January 5, 2023

Aside from being a supercalifragilisticexpialidocious mother she was also a daughter, sister, aunt, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. No matter what name you knew her by (Mum, Grami, Nani, G.G., Iggy, Ingie, etc...etc... etc) she will be greatly missed.

She touched so many lives in her 73 years of life. Many were friends of her children that she loved and cared for as if they were her own. Her priority was ensuring we were always happy and never shied from letting us know when we were making "not so good" decisions (never shy).

She is known for her amazing voice and especially singing Patsy Cline songs. "Crazy" was her specialty. Always ready with a story or joke (a gift she got from her father) she was never shy about being the life of the party (never shy).

No matter what was thrown her way, her faith never faltered, and she would whole-heartedly tell you that without her faith in God she would not have made it through many of those tough days.

She is survived by her son M.J. Arn and his family (daughter-in-law Tabatha Arn, granddaughter Emylie Samuelson and her husband Kyle and great granddaughter Jolie and grandson Zachary Arn) and her daughter Heather M. Miller and her family (son-in-law Brant Miller, granddaughter Michaella Miller and grandson Brady Miller). She also leaves behind brothers Michael, Jonathan, and Charles along with sisters Ursula, Heidi, and Muriel, many nieces, and nephews which she adored, not to mention all those she called her friends that were very much an extension of her family.

She was predeceased by her son, Brandon Christopher Arn, her sister Suzanne Powderly, her father Charles Palmatier and mother Helga Palmatier. There will be a funeral at St. Thomas More Catholic Church on Saturday, January 21, 2023, at 10 a.m.

“But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. Isaiah 40:31”

“ Heather Miller lit a candle in memory of Ingrid Arn

“ The memory in my heart is when I was young and still in Massachusetts and she would manage to rent a little cottage at the beach and we would sit there playing cards and listening to the radio and Juice Newton, Queen of Hearts, coming on. I can still hear the screen door shutting. And will never forget the feeling I got from that weekend with my mother and my brothers.

“ Ingrid, you were an awesome sister and you were loved so very much.
You are already missed and I promise you will always be remembered ❤️
Ken, Hunter and I send our love to Heather, MJ and the rest of the entire family.

As we grieve your passing let us remember that you are no longer in pain or sick. You have restored to health and are enjoying the beautiful peace of heaven. My heart misses you beyond measure, but I know I will see you again one day. Until then please watch over all of us.

Thank you for all the love and thank you Jesus for our salvation.
AMEN

“ You will forever be in my (our) heart's. You were an amazing big sister, and I was so blessed to be your baby sister. The world is definitely less brighter without you in it. I'm heartbroken that your gone but I rejoice because I know where you are...and you are healthy and living out eternity with Jesus. Save me a spot...I will see you again one day.
