

Jacquelyn Neas Elliott

December 22, 1965 - March 7, 2025

Jacquelyn Elliott, 59, passed away on March 7th, 2025. Jacque was a ray of sunshine to everyone she would meet.

She was an artist, a travel buddy, a confidant, a theater nerd, a book worm, a movie buff, an encyclopedia of music information, and a concert enthusiast. She was a loving wife and mom. And a bonus mom to so many. None of these titles could sum up who she was in her entirety, but she was such a fun-loving, multifaceted woman, through and through. She was active in many social settings and communities throughout her life, serving others everywhere she went.

Jacque was a steadfast friend, loyal and kind, constantly connecting and building relationships with anyone who crossed her path. In life and in death she is surrounded by love. Over the last two years, she has fought cancer fiercely, and made it look like it was easy. She laughed about losing her hair, she swept every doctor and nurse off their feet with her vibrant personality, and she went through it all so bravely. Jacque is no longer facing the pain that she endured, as she peacefully slipped away surrounded by her loved ones and, even in her last days, was a constant reminder of overwhelming strength and beauty.

We will miss her physical presence but will carry her with us forever, as our guide and companion. She is survived by her husband, Neil, her daughters Calli and Ellie, and so many other family and friends that she adored.

Services for Jacque will be at Grace Presbyterian Church in Temple on Saturday March 15th, 2025 at 1pm. In lieu of flowers, Jacque's family would encourage charitable donations toward Church Under the Bridge in Waco, TX or any other charity of your choosing.
