

James Edward Stewart

January 13, 1977 - June 3, 2026

In Loving Memory,
James E Stewart, January 13, 1977 — June 3, 2026

James E. Stewart, born on January 13, 1977, in the heart of Dallas, Texas, peacefully departed this world on June 3, 2026, leaving behind a tapestry of cherished memories and a legacy of love and laughter.

James was a man of many passions and talents, known for his unwavering loyalty, infectious sense of humor, and a heart that embraced all with warmth and kindness. He was the beloved son of Michelle Grosche, who survives him, as well as a cherished nephew to his aunts, Sandra Hainz and Cynthia Simonson. James also leaves behind his cousins Rhiannon Schubert, Steven Stewart, and Rob Simonson, who will forever hold him dear in their hearts.

James, served his country from 1996-2003, reaching the rank of Sergeant, Alpha Company, 615th Division. His love of country, loyalty and unwavering commitment to his brothers earned him many commendations and achievement awards, throughout his Army career.

A proud alumnus of St. Edwards University, James carried his love for learning and exploration throughout his life. His inquisitive spirit led him to travel extensively, creating a treasure trove of experiences and friendships around the globe. Yet, no matter where his adventures took him, Texas was always his home.

James had an innate affinity for music, which was a constant companion throughout his life. Whether strumming his ukulele or rocking out on his electric guitar, his passion for melodies was palpable. He was also an avid music collector, curating a vast and eclectic library that mirrored his diverse tastes and boundless enthusiasm.

His love for animals was equally profound, and he dedicated much of his time to the noble cause of rescuing and placing dogs in loving homes. James's compassion for our four-legged friends was a testament to his gentle soul and unwavering kindness.

To his circle of friends, James was not just a companion but a confidant, a source of endless laughter and joy. His love for parties and dancing was infectious, lighting up every room he entered. He was a friend like no other, and his absence leaves a void that will be felt by all who had the privilege of knowing him. His gatherings were legendary, filled with laughter, music, and shared stories that will be cherished forever.

In the words of his mother, Michelle, "We all loved him, and it's hard to describe this loss. James was a special man, and there was no other like him." She extends her deepest gratitude to James's close friends for their unwavering support and love during this challenging time.

While James's journey on this earth has ended, his spirit will continue to dance in the hearts of those he touched. He leaves behind a legacy of laughter, love, and music that will echo through the ages.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to local animal rescue organizations in memory of James's enduring love for animals. A celebration of James's life will be held at a later date, where friends and family will gather to honor the extraordinary life of a truly remarkable man.
