“ I can remember you picking me up from a school trip from Regan high school in your camero. You asked me if I wanted to drive I got scared and said No. I remember you taking me and Zeke out with you for a late drive. I remember so many firsts with you having fun on a holiday or weekend most young teens do. I remember you took my son Diggy on a bike ride around East Side when he was 5. I was so scared but He absolutely loved it. I remember visits to your home with friends or family and you always sending us off with snack bags. Filled with goodies. I remember our heart to heart talks. And you always telling me to pray and to do right. I won't speak for my Son. But he admired you so much. I love you James. I will miss you. Never forgotten always in my and our hearts
