

Jea Yup Zamencki

December 1, 1955 - February 28, 2024

In Loving Memory of Jea Yup Zamencki

With heavy hearts, we bid farewell to Jea, a beloved daughter, mother, and sister, who passed away on February 28, 2024. Born in Yeosu-si, South Korea, on December 1, 1955, Jea's journey was marked by creativity, resilience, and boundless love.

Throughout her life, Jea showcased her remarkable talent as a professional seamstress, skillfully tailoring clothes for her customers with precision and care. She took immense pride in her work, finding joy in the smiles of her satisfied customers. Her entrepreneurial spirit shone brightly as she ventured into the world of business, establishing several dry cleaning businesses in her community.

Jea's dedication to her craft and her unwavering commitment to customer satisfaction endeared her to all who crossed her path. Her warm smile and kind heart touched the lives of many, leaving an indelible mark on her friends, family, and community.

She leaves behind a legacy of love and strength, cherished by her oldest daughter, Dawn Keim, son-in-law Mikey Keim, youngest daughter, Judy Bravo and former husband Adam Zamencki.

Jea is also survived by several family members in South Korea, including her mother, Jeong Kwan-rye, sister Jeong Kyung-yeop, and brothers Lee Changhee and Lee Junhee. May her memory continue to inspire us all, as we honor the life of a remarkable woman who touched the hearts of many. Jea will be dearly missed and forever remembered with love and gratitude.
