

Jennifer Joyce Demonbreun

February 22, 1979 - April 16, 2021

Jennifer Joyce (Brown) Demonbreun was born to George and the late Barbara Brown in Haleyville, Alabama on February 22, 1979. She passed away in her home on April 16, 2021 in Killeen, Texas at the age of 42.

Jennifer was raised in Cullman, Alabama where she spent the first two decades of her life surrounded by her loving family and friends. Following the birth of her two daughters, she moved to Ashland City, Tennessee where she spent the majority of her adult life and had her son.

Jennifer was very driven in her professional life. She established her career in logistics from the early age of sixteen. She was the epitome of strength and has always persevered in order to provide for her three children. Jennifer was blessed with a large and loving family that adored and admired her. Jennifer was quirky, funny, and sought adventure in every aspect of her life. She made a friend everywhere she went and left an unforgettable impression. She will be dearly missed by her loved ones.

Jennifer is survived by her three children Marea (Tyler) Blake, Maddie Todd, and Jaxon Demonbreun; her four sisters Laura (Abe) Nimeh, Mandy (William) Wilbanks, Nikki (Damien) Steinrich, and Jessica (Tyler) Frank; her father, George Brown; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins. She is preceded in death by her mother, Barbara Brown.
