

Jesse Lozano Correa

March 21, 1948 - May 3, 2021

Jesse L. Correa

Born March 21, 1948 – Passed May 3, 2021

Jesse was born in Taylor, TX and grew up in Round Rock. He loved to play baseball and made the Correa name known. He served our country in the U.S. Army and was a Vietnam Veteran. He met the love of his life Dolores in 1967 and they wed in July of 1968. They spent a lifetime together.

Jesse never met a stranger and was always helping family or friends when asked. Not one to mince words you would either feel the sting of his wit or the care from his love.

Jesse suffered a life altering stroke in 2006 and by Gods grace he stayed with us beyond what was expected. He was happiest when his grandkids were around. His eyes would light up just to them. They all knew that Dad held them close to his heart and he always had a couple of dollars to slip in their hands.

Jesse is preceded in death by his Father, Lazaro Correa Sr., Brother, Lazaro Correa Jr., Son, Daniel Martinez. He is survived by his loving wife, Dolores, Children, Melissa Correa, Lorie Falcon and her husband Robert, Jesse Correa and his wife Cynthia. Grandchildren, Ryan, Joseph, Jesika, Olivia, Gabriel & Leticia. Siblings, Anita Chapa and Charles Morris of Memphis, TN, Frank Correa of Round Rock and Sophia Wheaton of Lynchburg, VA.

The family thanks all who have expressed condolences and love.

“ My Uncle Jesse made me feel as if I was the most special Goddaughter in the world. I will forever remember how much he wanted to shower me with gifts, kindness and love. My heart will forever have a special place in it for him. He was truly the most kind, gentle uncle. I feel blessed to have had him in my life and especially honored to have been his Goddaughter. I'll miss you SO much uncle Jesse. Forever and always in my heart...oxox's, Cindy

“ Delores, Missy, and Lorie, my sincere condolences on the passing of my cousin Jesse. I will always remember how happy he was to be around family. It was a blessing we were all able to get together for your wedding anniversary a couple of years ago. Jesse was an important part of my mothers life before she passed. He was so good to her, but also enjoyed joking around with her. He will be missed. Love to you all.
