Jesse was a very hard worker all of his life working 6 days a week to provide for his family with no complaints. On his one day off he would always try and find stuff around the house that needed fixing or grass that needed cutting. He provided love and strength to his wife and kids every day without fail. He was a very caring man that would do anything he had to just to make sure everyone dear to him was doing okay. We are happy to say, throughout his last few days he was surrounded by his loving family. He past peacefully in his sleep and he will forever remain in our hearts and in our memories.
