“ Dear Family,

This is my first post on this page. ———

I want to thank all of you equally— for your support!!!! Today your Mother, Grandmother, Great Grandmother is coming home. I truly loved This woman with all my heart and soul. 30 years is a lifetime you cannot get over in a day , week or ever . Everyday every day my heart will love her. EVERYDAY!!!! I cannot put in words (LOVE) true love has enveloped my heart it has taken me hostage . MY HEART ACHES. I want to express this feelings to all of you so that you to can feel this pure love in your heart. Talk , talk , talk take the time to talk to each other So love will grow like planting flowers in a pot that you both will have to enjoy 30 YEARS LATER.

I have first hand knowledge of the love your all of the above Mother, Grandmother great grandma for all of you,,, SHE spoke proudly of memories of all you and all new grandchildren in her lifeour life .

SHE had her ways WE had our ways. Brining up family helped her remind her of the love she had for her family SHE missed all of you in her heart. I hope I did not take this from our family , PLEASE talk talk talk this is how we did it.....

As all of you know iam not phone or web friendly this will b e my last post ..

THANK YOU FOR INVITING ME INTO YOUR FAMILY.

“ Jo T was always a great friend to my Dad, Pat Packwood. I had just heard Jo T was on hospice. When I saw her obituary in the paper this morning I was saddened. I remember the last conversation we had. She was telling me she was the last of the old timers left. She would always tell me Waterhole stories and she would giggle about the good times she shared with her friends. To her family and friends, I send my thoughts and prayers to y'all. Jo T was a wonderful person. She will be missed.

Sincerely,

Jordanna Packwood Larson
