

Johnny Anthony Rodriguez

August 9, 1960 - September 2, 2025

John Anthony Rodriguez was called to rest last week, and will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He was also known as “Johnny Cool” throughout East Austin.

Through his profession, he was known as Austin’s Mr. Painter Man. He was proud of his five star reviews that he received from customers, and guaranteed his master craftsmanship with each job offer.

When he wasn’t working, he loved to cook, especially smoked barbecue! One of his favorite sports that he could still participate in was horseshoes; he was quite a competitor!

He is preceded in death by his son John Anthony Rodriguez JR., his two brothers Edward Benjamin Rodriguez and Michael Anthony Rodriguez, along with his parents, Sara Rodriguez and Guadalupe Benjamin Rodriguez.

He is survived by his brothers and sisters, Lisa Benavides, Brenda Franco, Deborah Manchaca, Adolph Rodriguez and Fabian Rodriguez.

Rest in peace our beloved brother. You will be missed. Until we meet again.

“ One day me Mike, and Johnny went fishing to Lake Travis. We had to walk on this trail to get to the water. Of course on the way to the water we see a short cut and take a detour. Taking that detour we had to walk through this V shaped tree. At the root of the tree there was this hole. Mike went through it first and I was a ways behind so I couldn't hear anything they said. I saw Mike telling Johnny something to do with that hole. Mike then continued walking to the water. Johnny out of no where is all concerned for me staying behind and waits on me. I questioned him on why he was waiting for me? He just said, “cause!” When I finally reach him he says, “hold up! See that?” Pointing his fishing pole to the hole, I told him yes, and he asked, “ do you know what that is? “ So I turn my attention to the hole, I notice like three Honey Bees going in and out of it. By the time I look back at Johnny, he's stomping away at the hole and takes off running! I didn't know what was going on! Until I heard zzzzp zzzzp around my ears more and more! Then about the fifth sting in I realize I was being attacked by bees! I had to run and jump in the water!

The nerve of Johnny! While I was running to the water, it was in the same direction that he was in. He started swapping me with his pole saying “no no! Don't come this way!” Shit, I ran right by him and jumped in the water.
