“ Joe Kasly “Joey” as I called him, was a fantastic nephew. Although I live in Michigan and Joey in Texas, whenever we chatted it was like we were never apart. He LOVED his bbq recipes and I tried many. An honest man, quick to smile and to share joy. I will pray for his family and know that Joey is at peace in heaven. His dad and he will laugh together again and enjoy the simple and everlasting beauty of heaven together. I think if there is great bbq in heaven, it just got even better! Love uncle Rich and aunt Mary
